

National Council for the Social Studies

What a Membership Could do for You!

National Council for the Social Studies

www.socialstudies.org

Tennessee Council for the Social Studies

<http://www.tncss.org/index.htm>

<http://www.facebook.com/pages/Tennessee-Council-for-the-Social-Studies/61238261185>

Tennessee Council for the Social Studies/61238261185

Benefits of NCSS Membership:

Being a NCSS member has many benefits. Members receive one free subscription to his or her choice of a NCSS journal subscription, access to the online journal archives, a discount on publications and merchandise, the latest news, and social networking. Lesson plans are also available for grades K-12.

Journal Publications:

- Social Studies and the Young Learner
- Middle Level Learning
- Notable Social Studies Trade Books for Young People
- Bulletins and Books
- Curriculum Standards

Non-member Access:

There are free articles that are available for non-members including: Social Studies and the Young Learner, Middle Level Learning, and a list of Notable Social Studies Trade Books for Young People that are available to the public. Also you can learn about upcoming conferences and workshops.

Associated State Affiliate: TCSS

The Tennessee Council for the Social Studies is an association devoted to providing information, resources, and support for all those involved in social studies education. This includes K-12 teachers, supervisors of instruction, and college professors, in the various disciplines interested in and involved in the social studies. The TCSS has received the Gold Star award for their service in strengthening social studies education. For more information about TCSS visit the website or ask two of the East Tennessee board members that are our instructors: Dr. Keller and Dr. Suters.

Membership Fees:

Regular Membership:

1 yr: $66, 2 yrs: $124,
1st yr teachers: $39

Comprehensive Membership:

1 yr: $79, 2 yrs: $139,
1st yr teachers: $49

Student Memberships:

Overall Impressions of Website:

The website is very easy to navigate and use. It offers many resources and professional development opportunities for members along with articles and helpful information for non-members. The Get Connected tab was one of the most interesting parts of the website. It is a chat room for members to share ideas and lessons, or to just ask questions.

Regular: $37, Comprehensive: $47

Find more information at: <http://www.socialstudies.org/>